Wedding Coverage 2010

Your wedding day is a pinnacle day in starting your lives together as a couple. They are among my favorite events to photograph. I have a photojournalism approach to documenting your day.

Couples often ask me what sets me apart from other providers, and this is an easy question to answer.

I am a working news photojournalist. I do this every day and am highly trained and conditioned to seek out peak, candid moments in life and bring it to subscribers. So my style is not just a style-it is how I work...

My plus 20 years experience will allow me to focus on your day and tell it like a story, from the beginning to the moment you drive or sail off together.

As your day unfolds, I approach images unobtrusively and will blend the body of work with a selection of formal poses to complete your package of images of the day.

I take great care of my subjects and employ the highest of standards for my work. Couples that I work with can focus on their family, friends and each other. I will simply blend into your day and capture heartfelt story telling images of your wedding.

I look forward to working with you and capturing lifelong memories.

Best Regards,

Brad Camp

YOUR MENU CHOICES 2010

Before the Big Day

Engagement Photo Session: $150

These sessions are great fun! We find that couples love to take these images and create “Save the Date” cards for the big day. We also can make a large ‘Guest Book’ print for your guests to sign the matte or frame. This a great keepsake to remember your friends that came that day.

The Big Day

This is a very popular option. I bring in my portable studio, backdrops and LCD displays. We photograph guests with the couple, bride, groom, themselves or anyone else with the background. We then print-right there, in minutes-lab quality 4x6 prints, with your name and date imprinted, for your guests to take home that evening-

--You also get a CD copy of all the images from that night!

MULTI-MEDIA SLIDE SHOW: $100

Your story telling and captured still moments are assembled with your favorite music, instrumental or ambient audio of the day. The show can be loaded to your website to share with family and friends! A very special touch for your day!

SAME DAY (night) DELIVERY: $350

I bring my lab technician on site with us and set them up in a convenient spot. We edit your wedding images as they are shot. Images are displayed real time on a 42” monitor as a rotating slide show as they are edited. You get the CD with fully edited images that night! A typical wedding will have between 200-400 images depending on the length of the day and the number of activities and guests. This has been a very popular feature--guests love to see the images rotate in during the reception!

After the Big Day

Hard Cover Coffee Table Album: $450

A very classy hard cover book is designed with full color ‘magazine style’ pages. The hard cover design has a high-end feel that is reminiscent of fine art coffee table books. It is covered with a protective coating to preserve its appearance for years to come. Multiple copies of book have a discount applied.
